

U. F. A. EXECUTIVE ASKS CONFERENCE ON FARMER DEBTS.

After discussing at Calgary the farm debt situation for three full days, the executive committee of the United Farmers of Alberta, in concluding the second day of session, jointly approved a resolution calling for an inter-provincial government conference, and for action to place the Canadian dollar on a parity with the English

The resolution, in full follows:

"Whereas the prices for farm products now prevailing are the lowest on record and do not bring returns to the farmer sufficient to meet the cost of the current year's operations; and

1 That we believe this to be one of the most urgent problems of the day, a problem for which, in the interests of the people of Canada as a whole, an early and satisfactory solution must be found.

2 That we approve of all voluntary action towards the reduction of debt and adjustment of contrac-

3 That we approve of the action of the Alberta government in setting up and extending the operations of the Alberta Debt Adjustment Bureau and advising such farmers as find themselves subject to pressure from creditors to avail

Whereas the principal sums of such debts had a relation to the price the farmer was receiving for his products; and

Whereas ruinously low prices continue to make the liquidation themselves of its facilities, and not to postpone doing so until seizure of crop and other chattels have been made.

That we approve of the efforts of Premier Brownlee to bring together at the minimum cost and without elaborate machinery, the

RED CROSS APPEAL
—O:—
A Province wide Appeal for Red Cross will be launched in Alberta during the week of November 14th, as announced by Dr Egbert, President of the Society.
The Provincial Executive have decided this year at only a straight Red Cross Appeal should be made and that the relief which the Society is called upon to give will be dealt with through their own services, being limited to cases of sickness only, especially amongst children, and to service in

The Junior Red Cross. The Junior Red Cross Children's Hospital has during the past year been extended to accommodate the needs to supply the urgent needs occasioned by conditions prevalent throughout the province.

The Appeal will be made especially on behalf of the Hospital, and such cases of urgent need and sickness in outlying districts cannot receive relief from the Government. The work of the Red Cross in his relief cases will be carried on in close co-operation with Government Officials so as to avoid any overlapping.

INTERNATIONAL HARVESTER
CROP PRICE GUARANTY

Take advantage of this offer . . .
Get the new equipment you need to reduce your production costs

Many farmers who need new machines for the economical production of their crops have been reluctant to buy them because of uncertainty as to the prices they will receive later in the year for these farm products.

In order to meet this situation, the International Harvester Company of Canada, Ltd., offers to farmers purchasing machines after this date, a definite price guaranty on wheat based on 77 cents a bushel for No. 1 Northern at Winnipeg, applying to a liberal portion of the purchase price of the machine. If the market price for wheat does not reach the guaranteed price at the time payment becomes due on notes given and maturing this year, the purchaser of machines under the plan will receive a credit equal to the difference.

Any farmer in Canada, regardless of where he lives or what he raises, can purchase McCormick-Deering farm machines under the terms of this offer.

This is your chance to replace wornout and obsolete equipment on a favorable price basis. Let us explain the details of this remarkable plan and tell you just how to take advantage of it in equipping your farm with the new cost-reducing machines you need at a real saving.

BUSTING BABINO FEELING
CHIRPY OVER HIS RECORD

One of the more important results of the Yankees four straight world series victories over the Chicago Cubs may be the extension of Babe Ruth's playing career for a couple of years.

Baseball's brown Prince of Leon admitted that he discovered the fountain of youth, in the series and had decided to continue playing indefinitely because he felt, too young to quit.

This announcement surprised baseball writers who were ready to ship him off to the Boston Red Sox, or some other club as player manager at the end of next season.

Babe had promised positively that he would quit at the end of 1932 because he was feeling the weight of his 35 years and 29 full years of professional baseball.

His 34th was wrapping a new position on her husband's bruised right forearm while the big fellow talked of his plans. The arm had been struck by a pitched ball during the last game at Chicago.

However, I have decided quitting at the end of next season, he said. But when I found out that I was just as good as the young bucks in the series, it knocked the years right out from under me, and I felt so young again that I changed my mind. The way I feel, I've got a couple more good years in the old body—maybe three.

Babe said he will do no barnstorming this winter. He'll go to Cuba and hunt, and February go to Florida to get ready for the training season.

His reaction to the series follow. The Yanks are the heaviest hitting team New York ever had, probably one of the greatest hitting outfits in history. Lou Gehrig was the hero of the series. No. I don't know anyone who could be called the series goat.

Our pitching staff proved a shade better than the Cubs. Chicago's great weakness was in hitting. Yes, we expected their pitching to be better than it was, I saw no difference in the National League ball, we hit it as far as the American.

Charley Grimm is a swell fellow—a great guy with a wonderful personality. About his managerial ability—we weren't in a position to judge that. No. I don't expect many changes in the Yanks next year. We've got a mighty fine team just as it stands.

ROGERS HORNSBY
RETURNS TO CARDINALS

St. Louis—Rogers Hornsby, who was deposited last summer as manager of the Chicago Cubs, will take the "come back trail" with the St. Louis Cardinals next year.

Announcement was made that the "firebrand" of major baseball had signed a one-year contract as a player with the club which he piloted to a pennant and world championship in 1926.

The Cardinals, it was announced, will go to the Cardinal training camp next spring as a candidate for a regular job as second baseman, the position where he started in his hey day. Sam Breadon, president of the Cardinals said he was confident Hornsby would be able to play major league baseball and that he would be of material help to the St. Louis club in the Carpenter. Well John, have you sharpened all my tools?

Apprentice—Yes—all but the saw—I haven't quite got all of the gaps out of it.

Wearly Willie, who was out of a job, as usual rapped thriftily at Mrs. Murphy's kitchen door. The lady angry at being interrupted at her washing, flung open the door, and glowered at him. Did you wish to see me? she belched.

Wearly Willie backed down the steps and said meekly, Well, if I did, I got my wish, thank you.

Meeting Mac in the street, Stanley told him how he called at a certain station buffet and ordered a drink. When he had consumed the drink, he was about to leave, he said, when the barmaid reminded him that he hadn't paid. He however, insisted that he had paid, and in the end the barmaid thought he had, and apologized.

Not long afterwards, Mac entered the same buffet and ordered a drink. When he had finished, he said to the barmaid.

Well, lassie, there's the whistle for my train—hurry up with my change.

Sergeant (addressing a particularly dense recruit): How many times must I tell you never to approach horses from the rear without speaking to them? One of those days you know, you will get ahead of the head and then I'll have a lame horse on my hands.

Well, have you heard the one about the fellow with a lip trying to tell a girl that he liked her size.

First Politician—I think this election will settle the farm problem.
Second Politician—Great gains I hope not; my job would be gone and yours too.

Maggie, aged eight, was caught stealing sugar and sent to bed. Her father, a minister, was away and returned late in the evening. Mamma, I want to see daddy.

There was no response from her bed.
Mamma, please let daddy bring me a drink of water.

When this failed, a small girl in a white nightgown stood at the head 1932 pennant campaign.

It was Breadon who when Hornsby was at the height of his fame, traded him to the New York Giants for Frank Pritch and pitcher Jimmy Ring, although as manager Hornsby had piloted the Cardinals to the world championship in 1926 and now Breadon thinks The Rajah deserves a chance to rehabilitate himself in the major league baseball world.

Sale terms of the contract were not announced. It was made known, however that under its terms Hornsby will receive his conditional release at the end of the 1932 season, subject to the fifth end regulations of the National League.

I feel like I'm coming back home, to get into the Cardinals or something again, Hornsby said. When Hornsby goes to training camp as a candidate for second base he will be competing with Frank Pritch.

If Hornsby wins the job, Breadon said, Pritch of course can be shifted to third base.

FARMERS NOT ALONE IN PRESENT DIFFICULTIES

The Winnipeg Free Press says:—There is some evidence at least that people who could pay their tax bills are stalling, making out that the neighbors make payment first. Municipalities especially are making a drive to collect what is due them. That is all to the good. If services are to be carried on, the public is to be supported in the style to which it has accustomed itself then the wherewithal must be forthcoming.

But there is some danger that in making the agencies of the municipalities, other creditors will be entirely overlooked. What about the storekeeper? If the tax gatherers take all the surplus does this mean that the storekeeper's bill must go unpaid? There are cases, especially in rural communities, where the storekeeper is asked to carry the accounts of many of his customers. It is difficult for him to refuse on humanitarian as well as on grounds of friendship. Some are taking advantage of this, running up bills beyond what they can afford or strictly and letting the storekeeper do the paying. Where this is not absolutely necessary it is a shabby performance, a petty form of practice that is near to stealing. It is a question also whether governmental agencies should force their own claims without any reference whatever to the claims of others. A lot is heard of the hardness of the debtor farmer. What about a few words on behalf of the creditor storekeeper?

PAYING YOUR TAXES IT MUST BE DONE

The following from the Farmer Chronicle is an editorial comment on Miss Agnes McPhail's advice given to farmers at a recent Kincardine meeting:

A speaker at Kincardine advises the farmers to say they would not pay their taxes until they "own them out of the land." We wonder when we read it how they have been paying them all along; they did not come out of the land. The writer pays taxes, too. Instead of telling us to refrain from paying our taxes until we could earn them out of the printing office. Frankly, if we can't raise the money here, we do not know where we shall get it. The earning power of the office is the only asset we have. The cost of a good many farmers is similar. Their assets are their farms.

So far as the taxes on the Chronicle property is concerned, if they do not come out of the office somebody is going to be out of luck. We have no stocks or bonds. It is a question also whether governmental agencies should force their own claims without any where the money is to come from is not nearly so hard to determine as the time when it will appear.

reference whatever to the claims of others. A lot is heard of the hardness of the debtor farmer. What about a few words on behalf of the creditor storekeeper?

Miss McPhail is quoted as having said in her speech: The farmer is 47 per cent of Canada's population. His produce prices have dropped 60 per cent and what he must purchase only 14 per cent. His fixed overhead is in terms of dollars and the only way he can get money is to produce more for an already overproduced market. This reduces prices instead of increasing them. The only way out of this vicious circle, declares Miss McPhail is for each 50¢ every farmer to refuse to pay taxes until he can earn them from the land. Continuance of present methods will result in the farmer giving away all his accumulated capital.

Miss McPhail has been criticized by many non-partisan papers for her remarks, which are: "refuse to pay taxes until you own them out of the land." One comment is: Miss Agnes McPhail is reported as advising the farmers not to pay their taxes. Creation of tax paying would mean the closing of schools, stopping all work on roads, and the withdrawal of all services now carried on by the municipality. But even though the payment of taxes undoubtedly is, the farmers are not likely to follow Miss McPhail's advice and sacrifice their schools and other valuable services. They will, however, be wise to continue to insist that public expenditures—municipal, provincial and federal—be cut wherever practicable and the burdens of taxation eased.

Teacher—Your history was bad and you had to write it out 20 times, but you have only done it 17 times.

Boys—Yes, sir, my arithmetic is bad also.

Mandy in applying for a position was asked if she had any references.

Al—She has, na'am. This am I.

The letter read: The bearer of this letter is leaving me after one month's work. I am perfectly satisfied.

John—Tear, you used to hold my hand for hours. Why don't you do it now?

We've sold the piano, haven't we?

Angry Motorist—Some of you pedestrians walk along as if you owned the street!

Irate Pedestrian—Yes, and some of you motorists drive around just as if you owned the car.

Empress of Australia."

If transportation was sold like merchandise, a recent announcement by the Canadian Pacific Steamships would have read something like this: "The Holy Land, Egypt, and the story that was covered for 12 days 142,000 a day!" But it isn't done that way so winter holiday business has been the latest thing in cruise fares is more modest fashion. The latest thing in cruise fares is the institution of Tourist Class on the Mediterranean cruises by the Empress of Australia; and for a minimum of $300 a 60-day cruise that calls at 25 ports is now available.

Palestine, the Nile, Cairo and the Pyramids, Rhodes—site of the famous Colossus—Barcelona, Genoa, Gibraltar and Funchal, Madeira, where Mrs. Christopher Columbus was born, are high lights of the cruise which leaves New York January 21st. Tourist accommodation in the magnificent 22,000-ton ship of Australia is famous for the comfort as thousands of students, teachers, and professors who have crossed the Atlantic in the specially vessel know. Divided by the 60 days of the cruise, which allows a stopover in England and return Tourist Class by any Canadian Pacific liner—even the Blue Rib-bon holding Empress of Britain—works out at a daily cost of a little less than $1.35.

It is believed that the new rate will introduce the joys of winter cruising in sunny southern latitudes to many who have not been able to enjoy such a holiday before.
